

Left, Rosanna Ungerman depicts poignant moment when Mary Magdalene kneels at the empty tomb on resurrection morning in "Lamb of God." Above, extras in "Mountain of the Lord" act out scene of preparing granite blocks for shipment to construction site of the Salt Lake Temple.

Photos courtesy LDS Church

Choir tour of Utah cities

Commencing with a concert April 18 in the Salt Lake Tabernacle, the Tabernacle Choir will present sesquicentennial concerts in various Utah locations. Subsequent dates and locations are:

May 2 — Southern Utah University Spectrum, Cedar City.

May 3 — Burns Arena, Dixie Center, Dixie College, St. George.

May 16 — Snow College, Ephraim.

May 23 — Dee Smith Spectrum, Utah State University, Logan.

June 13 — Bunnell-Dmitrich Athletic Center, College of Eastern Utah, Price.

June 20 — Uintah High School, Vernal.

June 29 — Marriott Center, BYU, Provo.

July 12 — Dee Events Center, Weber State University, Ogden.

Ensign Peak Garden dedication

Date: July 26

Location: City park near foot of Ensign Peak, 147 Ensign Vista Dr., Salt Lake City.

Time: To be announced

Admission: free

Features: Last year, a city park plaza and improved trail to the top of Ensign Peak were completed by a citizens group and presented to Salt Lake City. This year, a memorial garden is being constructed on Church property near the park. The garden will give the LDS historical and doctrinal significance of Ensign Peak and tell the story of the Pioneers who settled Salt Lake Valley and built the temple.

Additional sesquicentennial events

In addition to the Pioneer Spectacular on page 6, here is a schedule of additional events. The schedule is not complete. Planning for celebrations this year is continuing.

Jan. 17 through entire year — Church History and Art, Salt Lake City.

Jan. 18-Oct. 12 — "Pioneers and Their Art," Museum of Church and Art, Salt Lake City.

Feb. 2 — Church Education Center, Salt Lake City. Theme: "Faith in Action."

March 29 — General Young Center, Salt Lake City. Sesquicentennial theme, "Faith in Action."

April 16 — Dedication of the new Omaha, Neb. Temple.

May 4 — Church Education Center, Salt Lake City. Emphasis on sesquicentennial, "Faith in Action."

May 18 — Aaronic Priesthood Center, Salt Lake City. Based on sesquicentennial theme, "Faith in Action."

May 25-February 1998 — "Pioneers and Their Art," Museum of Church and Art, Salt Lake City.

July (dates to be determined) — Latter-day Saints and the Historic Institution, Washington, D.C.

July 19 — Pioneer Heritage Center, Salt Lake City. Latter-day Saints contribute to the celebration.

July 24 — Days of '47 Sunnyside, Utah.